

Lack & Fermanagh as part of Cumberland county erected in 1750. These lands were purchased from the Native Americans on July 6th, 1754.

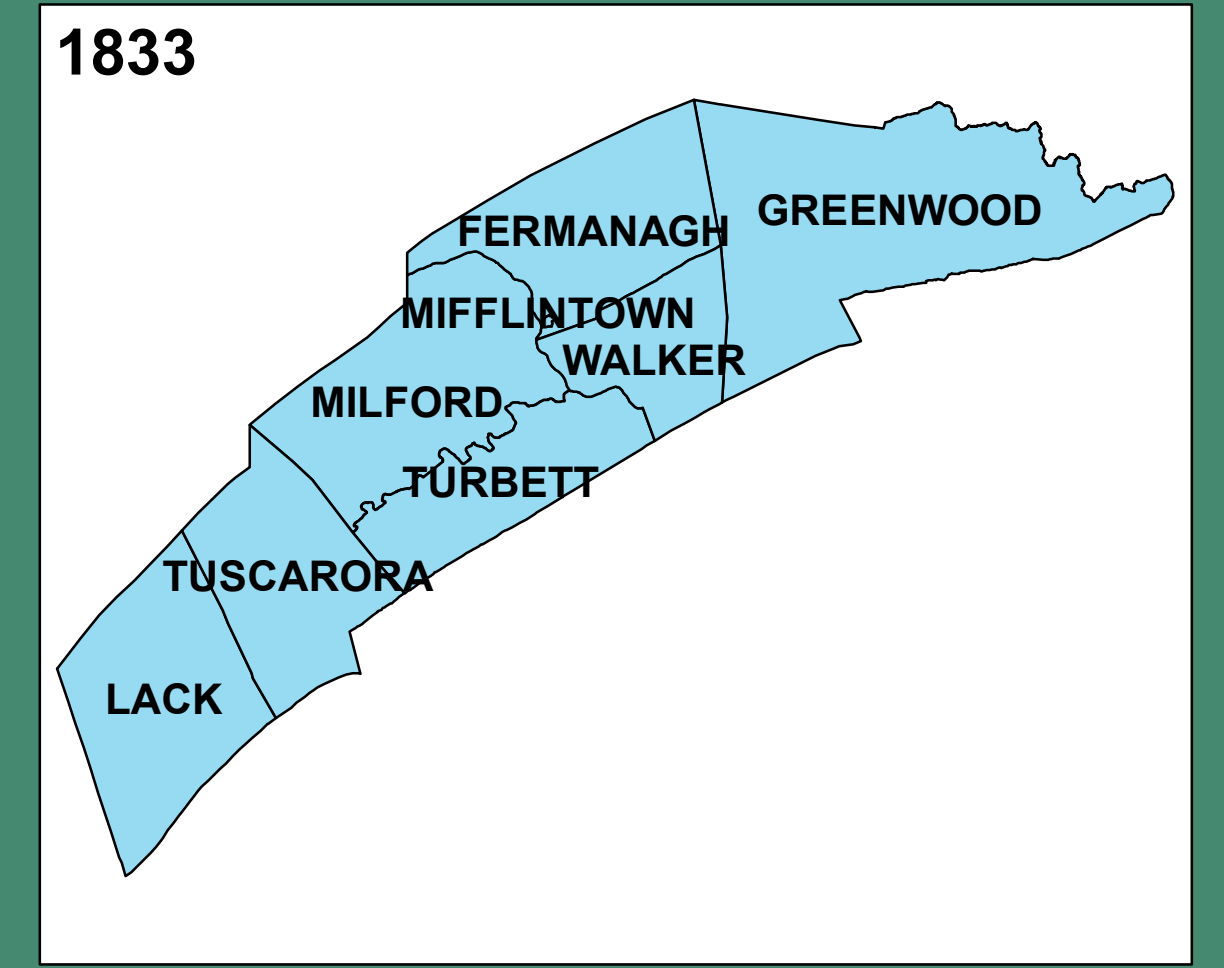

Part of Cumberland County.

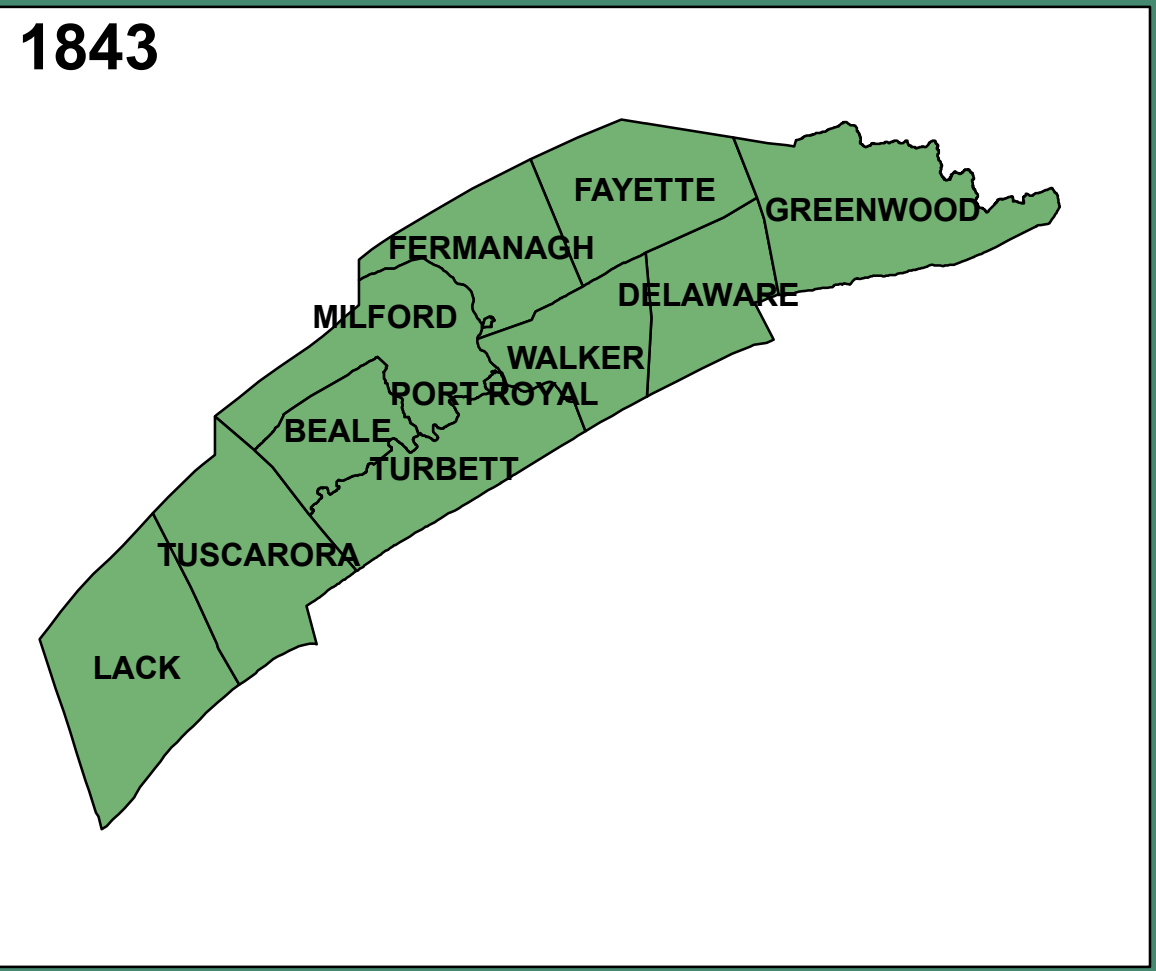

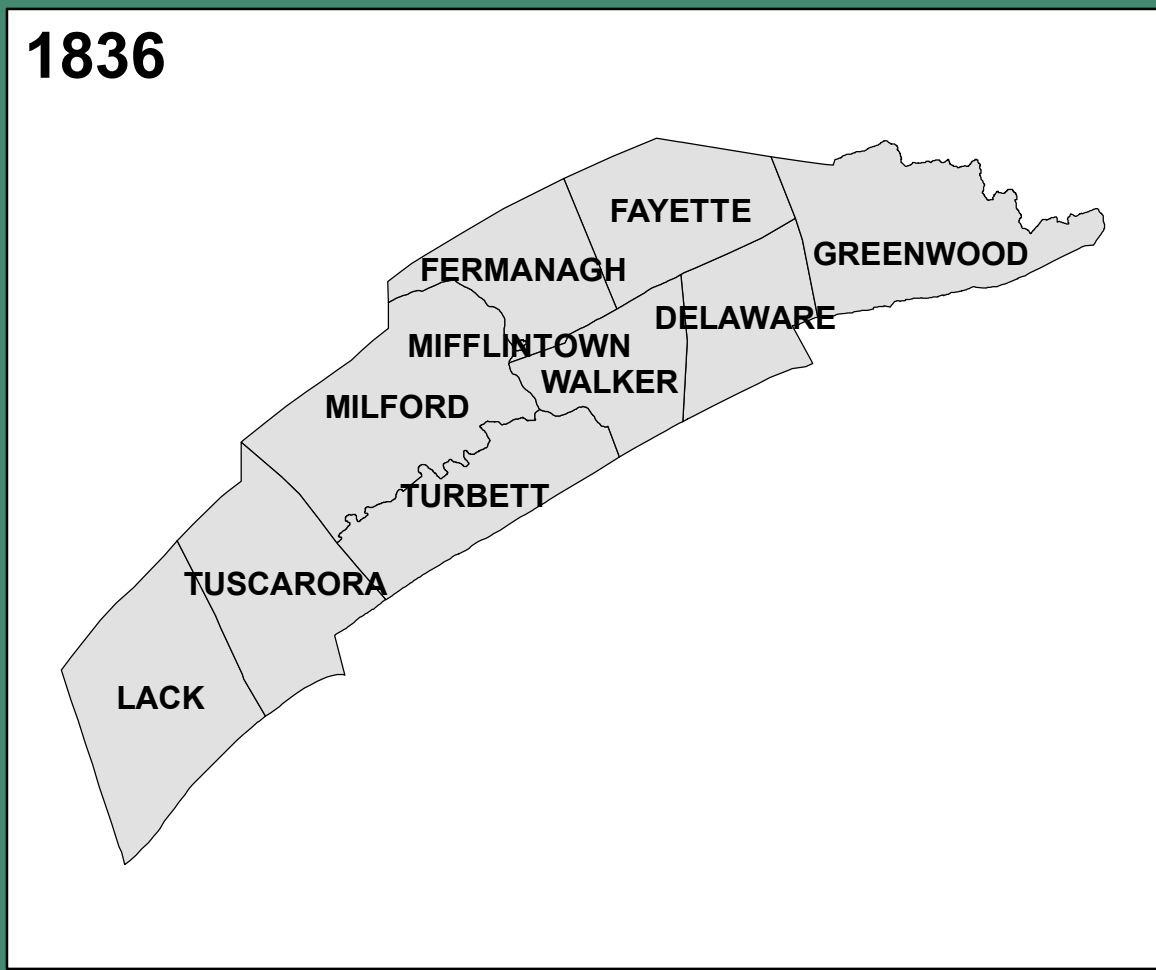

Mifflin County was formed in 1789 out of parts of Cumberland County. At this time, these townships were part of Mifflin County.

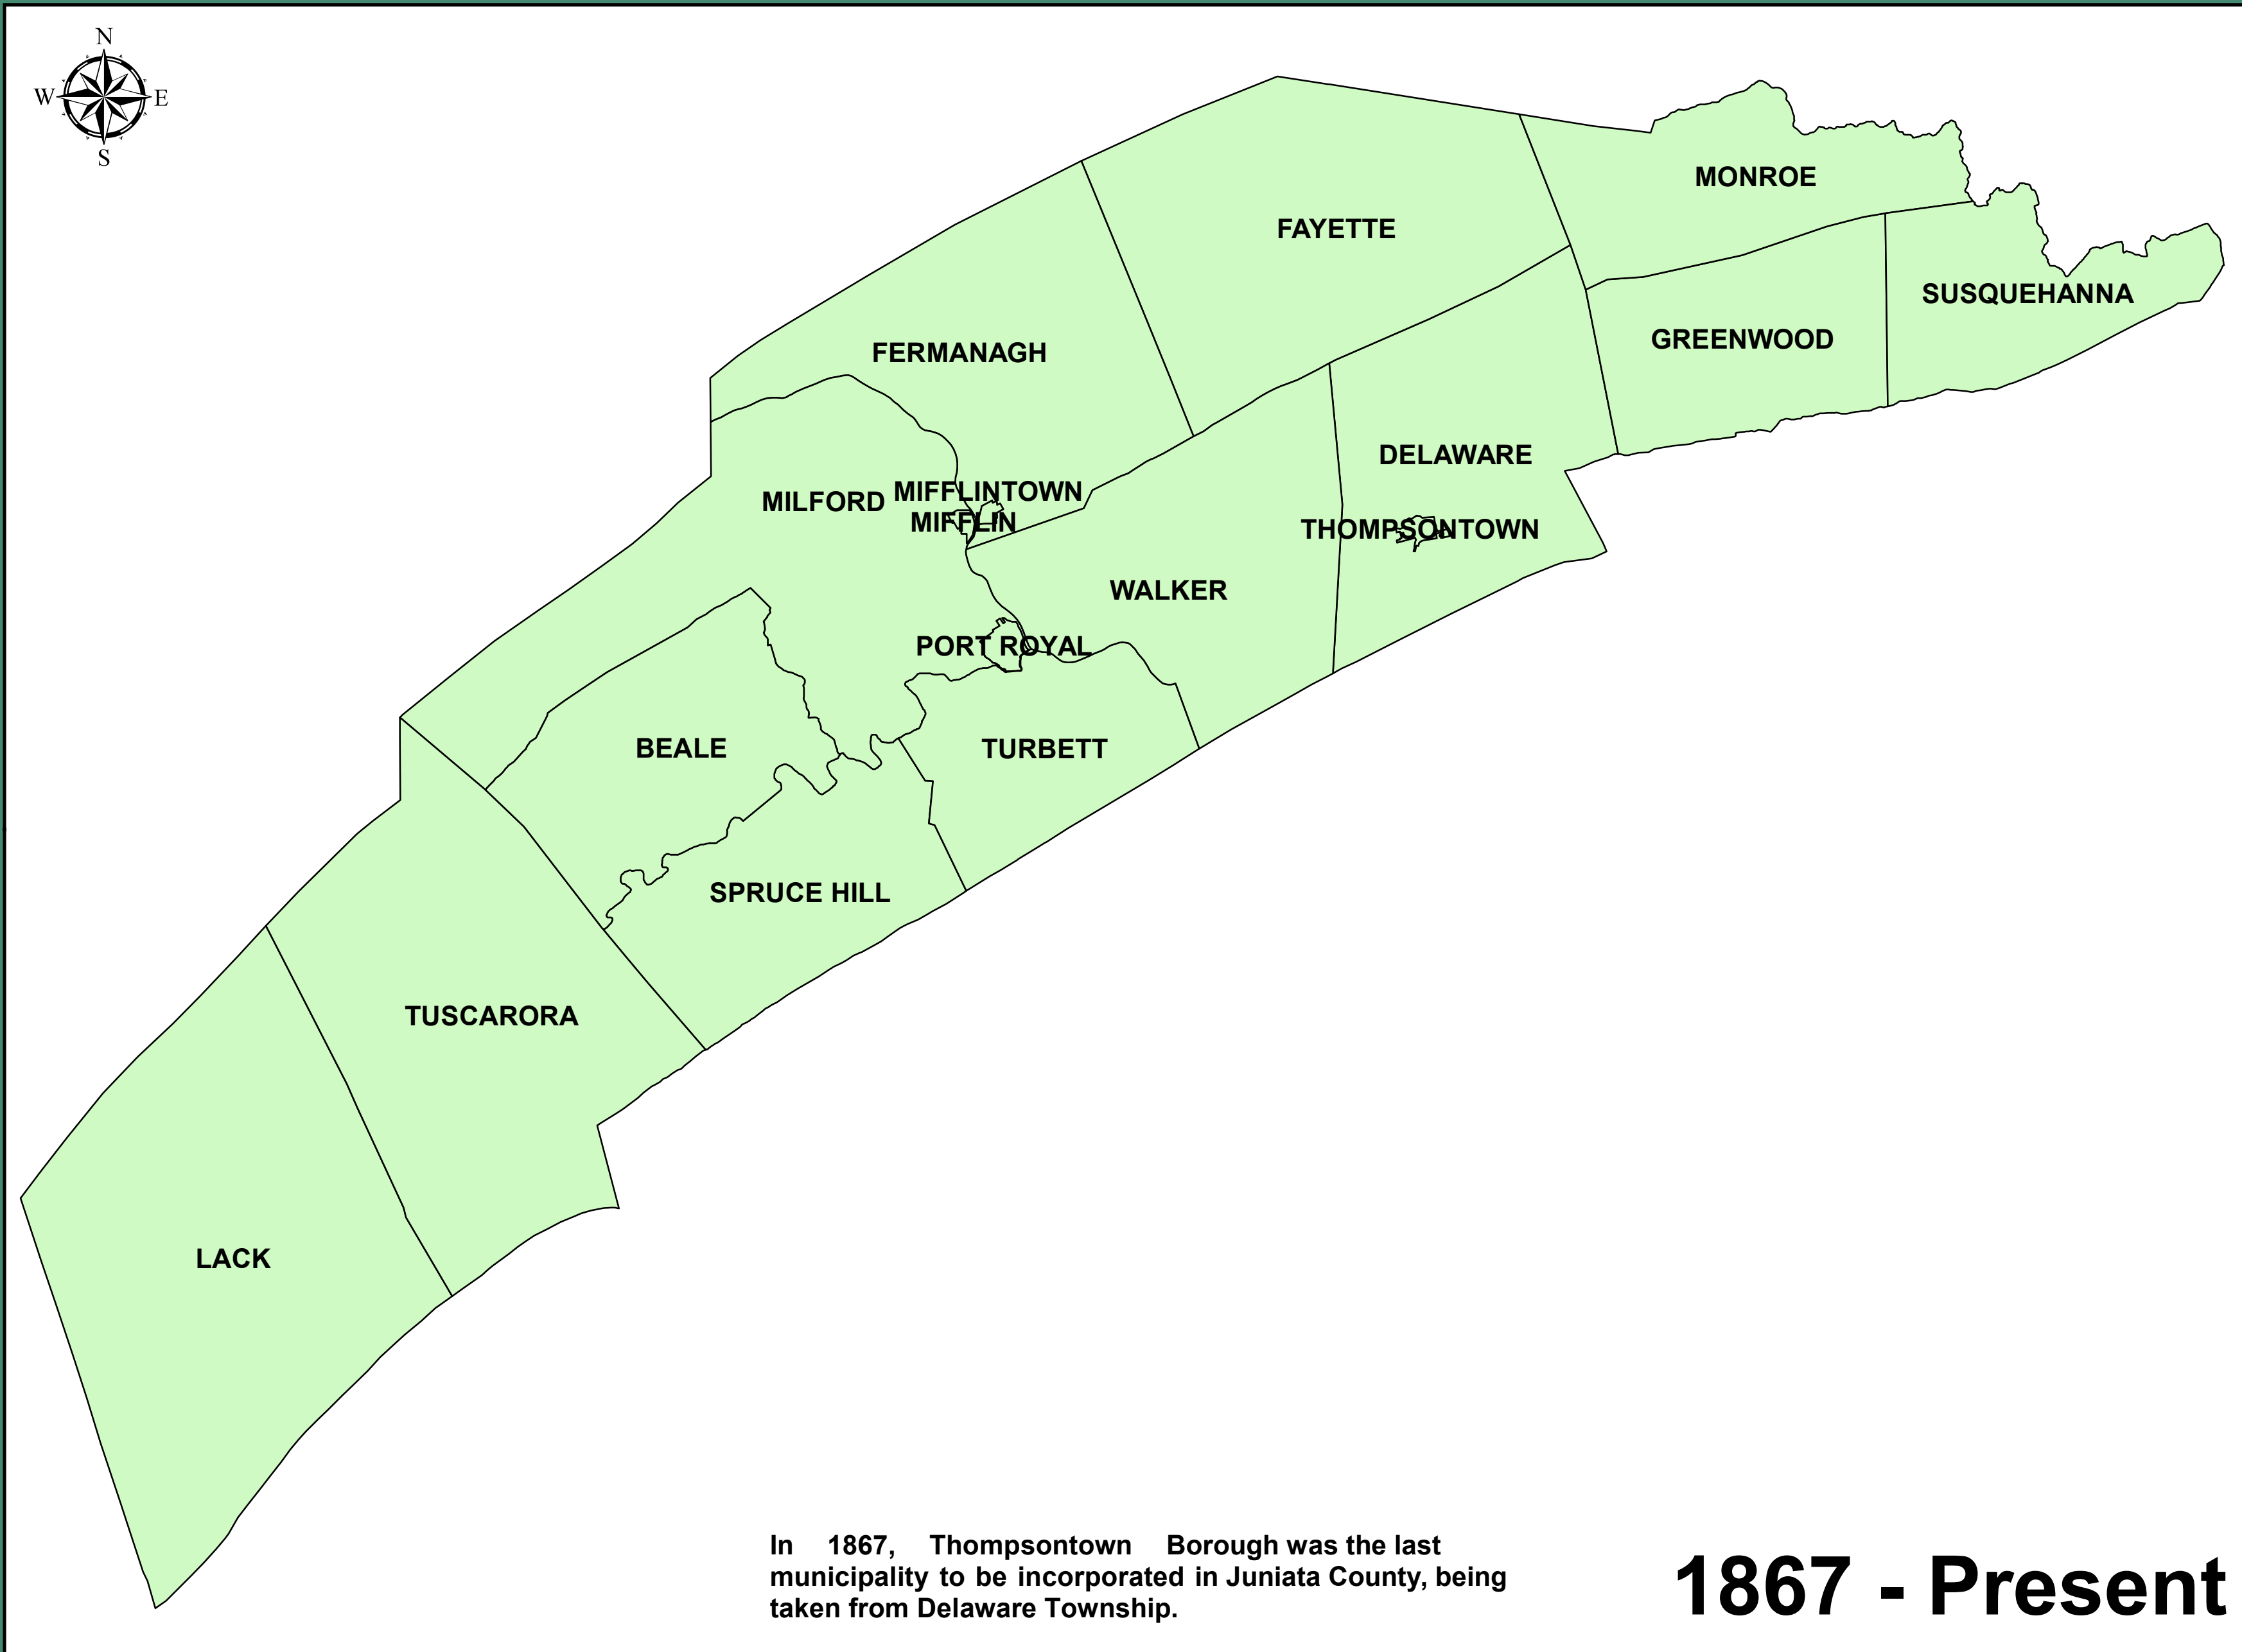

Townships as they were part of Mifflin County

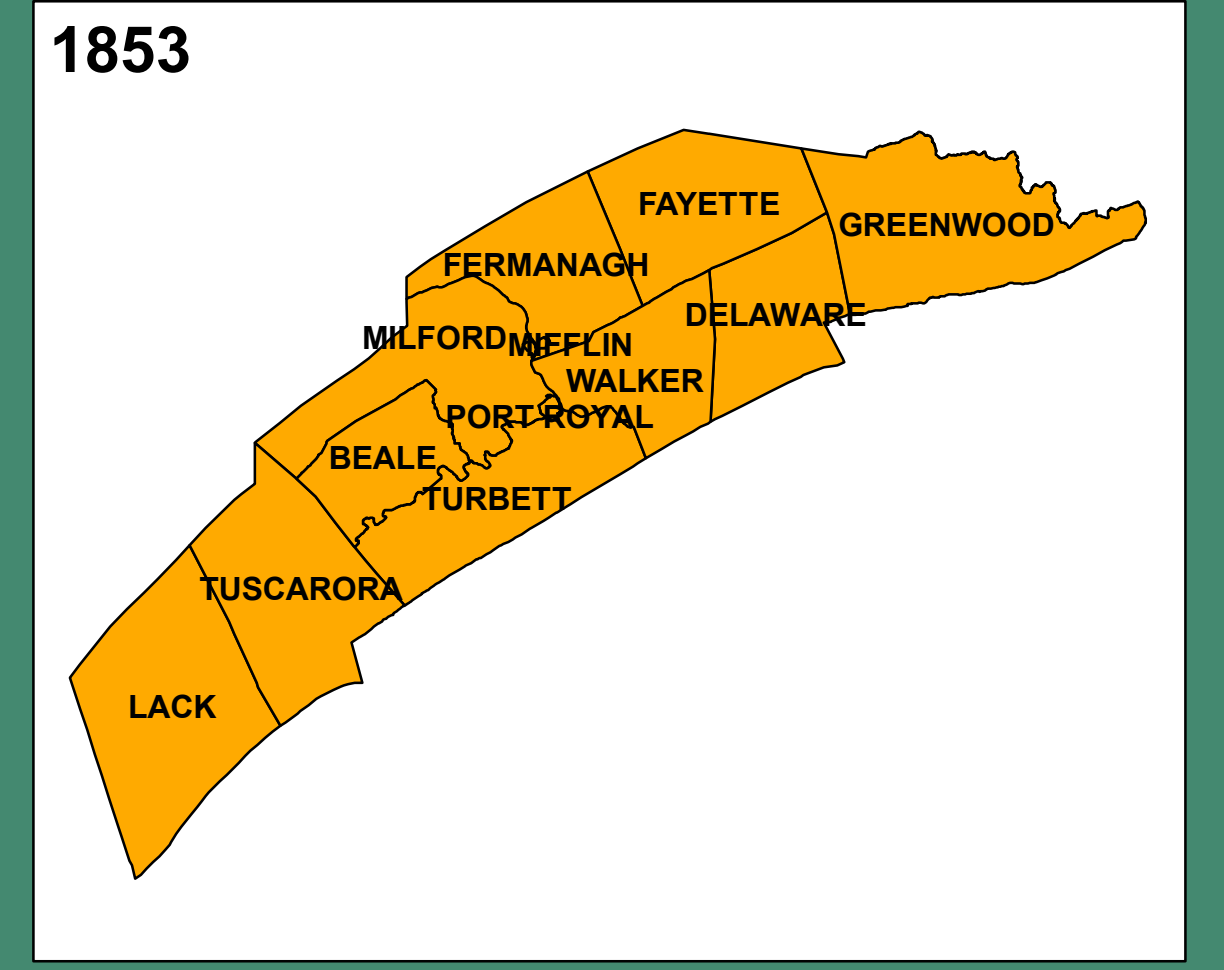

Juniata County was erected in 1831. In 1833, Mifflintown borough was the first borough created in Juniata County. It was taken from Fermanagh Township.

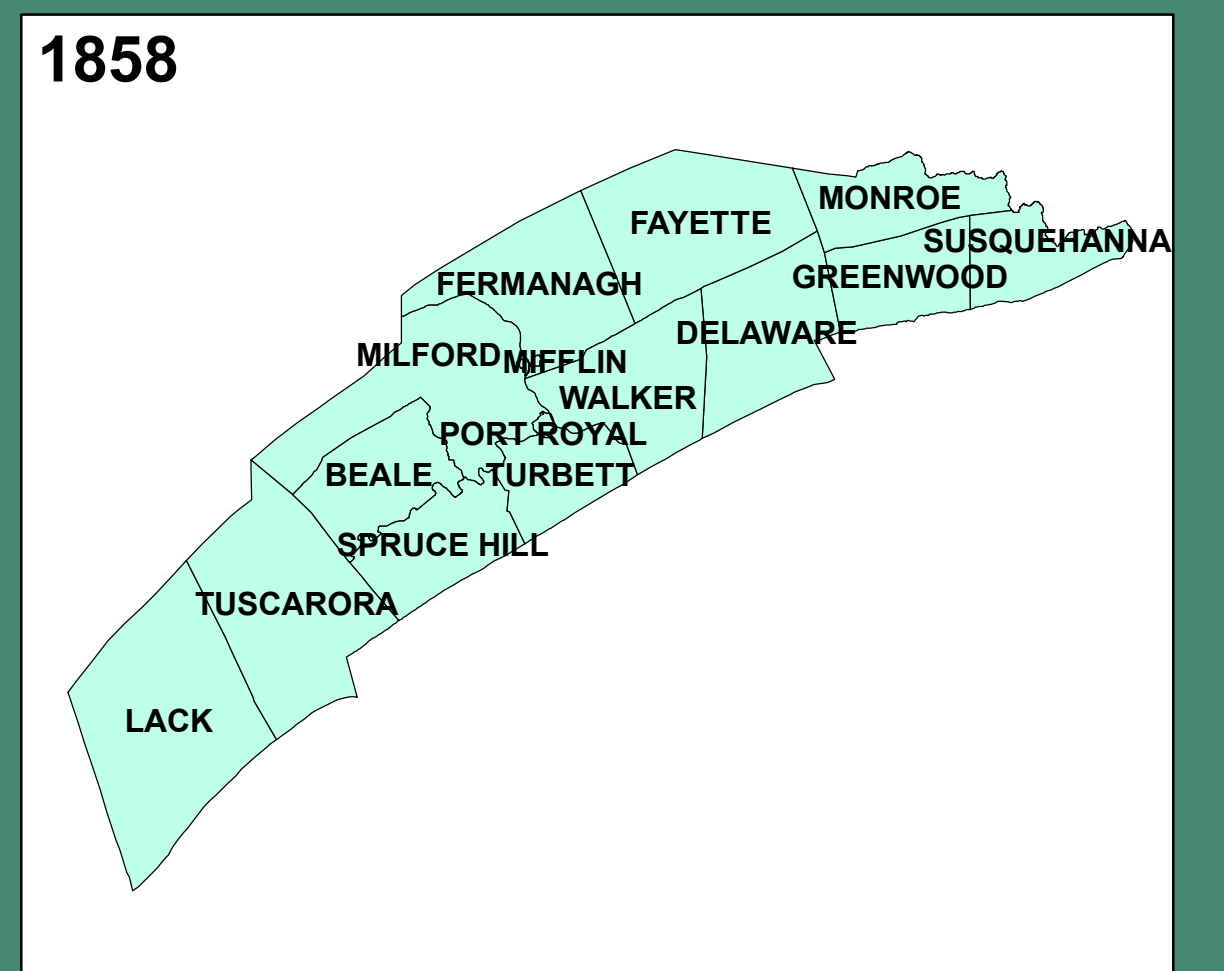

Port Royal was incorporated as a borough being taken from Milford Township.

Provided by the Juniata County GIS Department as a reference map only. This is not a legal document.

Patterson was incorporated as a borough being taken from Milford Township. In 1910, Patterson was changed to Mifflin.

The Evolution of Juniata County Townships & Boroughs 1754 - Present